"Tonight good old Shakespeare's considered a bore Tonight something new and unique is in store"

The title says it all in the international smash hit musical comedy Naked Boys Singing! This hilarious musical revue features 15 original songs, a bevy of gorgeous and talented men, and no clothes – a winning combination if ever there was one! From the sassy opening number "Gratuitous Nudity" to the screamingly funny "Bliss of a Bris," audiences and critics the world over have hailed Naked Boys Singing! a sure-fire crowd-pleaser.

Originating at the Celebration Theatre in Los Angeles, this campy musical comedy opened Off-Broadway in 1999 and ran for over twelve years.

Shortly after the original Off-Broadway closed, the smash hit Provincetown adaption of Naked Boys Singing! transferred to the Off Broadway stage where it is still enjoying a healthy run today.

"Talk about a show with balls!" - Time Out

"Naughty and funny" - Sydney Morning Herald

"A cheery musical revue with clean scrubbed songbirds in their birthday suits" - The New York Times
